Fighters Battle To Keep Fires Apart

Wind Letup Raises Hope For Control

At Least 250 Plush
Homes Destroyed
In Calif. Holocaust

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Flames burned uncontrollably over 10 miles of the picturesque Santa Monica Mountains Tuesday, threatening more ruin to rich residential areas already devastated.

But winds calmed and authorities said they hope for containment some time Tuesday night and control Wednesday.

The worst fire in Southern California history has destroyed at least 250 plush homes in the movie star studded Bel-Air district and damaged uncounted others. Loss is estimated at $15 million or more.

Thousands of men, including soldiers and trusted prisoners, massed to combat new flare-ups in Bel-Air and a separate threat to its deluxe sister community, Pacific Palisades.

Two huge fires, which broke out about the same time Monday eight miles apart and ballooned overnight to more than 5,000 acres each, burned to within less than a mile of each other.

Many Ready To Move

They threatened to join near Pacific Palisades and sweep down upon the small seaside community, which has hundreds of homes extending back into brushy canyons. Many in the Pacific Palisades are ready to move, and a few had left, but there was no evacuation order.

The main effort Tuesday was to prevent a repeat of Monday's Bel-Air holocaust. There, during a nightmarish six hours, "firestorms" roared down brush-choked canyons lined with homes, igniting them one by one.

Along one street alone, Rossmore, more than 50 homes in the $5,000 and up class were destroyed.

In Bel-Air, this area's richest residential district with homes ranging up to half a million or more in value, the scene Tuesday was one of ruin and sorrow.

Nixon And Family Return

Smoke still swirled and flames still crackled over brush patches not consumed previously as burned out movie stars, executives and retired millionaires returned to homes they were forced to flee.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and his family went back to the rented home they evacuated. Stars Burt Lancaster, Joe E. Brown and Zsa Zsa Gabor found their places in ruins. Other celebrities found they suffered partial damage.

The two big blazes broke out about 9 a.m. Arson is suspected in each. The Topanga fire, more remote, wasn't noticed for hours. But it burned steadily east, engulfing nine small homes.

Ghana Leader Drives Royal Parade Route

ACCRA (UPI)—British Commonwealth Secretary Duncun Sandys drove through Accra Tuesday in an open car with President Kwame Nkrumah and then returned to London to report on whether the parade route is safe for Queen Elizabeth II.

The Queen is expected to fly here Thursday but a series of anti-Nkrumah bomb explosions in recent days roused great fear in London for her personal safety even though she would make the trip through Accra in a bullet-proof car.

If there was anti-Nkrumah feeling Tuesday it was concealed in expert fashion behind cheers, cymbal clashing, handkerchief waving and smiles. But fears continue that any attempt against Nkrumah might endanger the Queen's life accidentally.

"K" Admits A-Tests Flattop Brings Harm World Health

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev acknowledged Tuesday that nuclear tests in the atmosphere are harmful to the health of the world's people and that the Soviet Union is being criticized for them but said: "We will stop when the others stop."

The premier's statements were made in a toast and to newsmen at a huge reception in the Kremlin on the 44th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution. The reception followed the traditional Red Square parade, including a 21-minute military show.

Foreign leaders said they noted only two new items in the section given to weapons. They included what appeared to be a short-range solid-fuel rocket with a heavy undercarriage, and an amphibious vehicle slightly larger than seen here before.

In his wide-ranging chat with Khrushchev, who pushed up to a barrier of tables separating high-ranking guests from the 4,000 persons in the top-floor dining room of the new Kremlin auditorium, Khrushchev:

Declared "it is not good to push one another around" about Berlin. The Soviet Union, he said, is not "superstitious about dates, whether the date is the 13th or the 31st" but will not wait indefinitely for a solution. Khrushchev once set Dec. 31 for the signing of a German peace treaty but has since withdrawn the deadline.

Denied reports that three Soviet cosmonauts were killed in an abortive Sputnik launching in October, or that launches had been planned for the traditional observance Tuesday during the recent Soviet party congress.

"No matter how sure we are, certain risks are involved, launching is not 100 per cent sure," he said. "It would be too bad if we had had to interrupt the congress to go to a funeral." He added that there will be other launches but none is planned in the immediate future.

Replied with a smile, "We stop at night, in the morning we start again" when asked if the Soviet Union had stopped its nuclear experiments. Khrushchev told the party congress on Oct. 17 the current tests apparently would be ended the last of October, but several more bombs have been exploded since then.

Shook his head in the negative when asked if the Soviet Union plans to shoot off any more 50-megaton bombs.

Malfunction Thwarts Capsule Recovery Try

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI)—Trouble in the 25-foot long Discoverer XXXIV satellite as it whizzed around the world at 18,000 miles an hour Tuesday doomed efforts to recover an instrument capsule from it, the Air Force announced.

A terse announcement said only that the attempted recovery would not take place because of an on-orbit malfunction in the satellite.

Discoverer XXXIV was launched into orbit Sunday from this coastal base.

Salazar Wins Extension Of Long Rule By Default

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Prime Minister Antonio de Oliveira Salazar won by default Tuesday an extension of his 32-year rule. Five days before formal election of a new National Assembly, the last opposition candidates withdrew, asserting Salazar refused to make the election "either free or clean."

The opposition default means Salazar-backed National Union candidates will gain a clean sweep of the 130 legislative seats for the next four years. Sunday's voting will be only a formality.

In withdrawing, the opposition candidates appealed to all Portuguese to stay away from the polls as a protest. The opposition's action is expected to spark public demonstrations.

It hinted the opposition might turn to more violent means.

77, figurehead of all Portuguese factions actively opposed to the Salazar regime, announced at a news conference the withdrawal of himself and 25 Republican, Democratic and Liberal candidates.

Their formal announcement said they expected to be jailed as soon as the official period of immunity to arrest for political candidates expires 48 hours before Sunday's balloting.

"It is no longer possible to solve the problems of our people through elections, because the country is under the rule of a government obstinate in its anti-democratic methods and processes," their statement asserted.

It hinted the opposition might turn to more violent means.

Ratterman Swept Into Sheriff's Office

NORTHPORT, Ky. (UPI)—Former football star George Ratterman, whose campaign for sheriff of this "sin city" as an independent reform candidate gained national attention when he charged he was "framed" with a strip-tease dancer, was swept into office Tuesday night.

The former Notre Dame and Cleveland Browns quarterback polled 12,610 votes, nearly as many as the combined total of his Democratic and Republican candidates.

It hinted the opposition might turn to more violent means.

Nehru, JFK Split On How To Ban Tests

India Leader Urges New Moratorium, U.S. Wants Controls

WASHINGTON (AP)—India's Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and President Kennedy discussed major world problems Tuesday and were reported to have disagreed over how to achieve a nuclear test ban treaty and general disarmament.

Informants said Nehru held that a voluntary moratorium on testing should be renewed with the Soviet Union and that this would not rule out an agreement on controls during the moratorium period.

The United States view is that a moratorium on testing places restraint on open societies such as the United States but does not prevent closed societies such as the Soviet Union from preparing new tests.

Nuclear testing was one of the points of sharpest disagreement between India and the United States before Nehru's arrival Monday on an official visit.

Meet Again Wednesday

Kennedy and Nehru conferred 2½ hours at the White House during the morning. Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, afterward said they would hold an extra session at 10 a.m. (EST) Wednesday to continue the exchange of views. They had not been scheduled to meet again until Thursday.

Salinger said five topics dominated the talks. Besides nuclear testing they were:

Berlin—Kennedy presented the U.S. position in detail. A general discussion followed.

Indian sources said later Nehru told the President that free access to the city must be fully guaranteed for the Western powers and that Soviet Premier Khrushchev took the same position. Nehru met with Khrushchev in September.

The sources said Nehru also stated West Berlin residents should be left free to live in their own way.

Laos, Viet Nam Discussed

Southeast Asia—They talked about Laos and South Viet Nam, both now menaced by Communist forces, and dealt with these two problems: How independent governments can be maintained and how such governments can be protected from intrusion from any quarter.

Positions taken there by some of the nations, particularly on nuclear testing, were widely criticized in America at the time as favoring the Communist world.

New African states—There was discussion of problems in this area but Salinger gave no details. Presumably it covered continuing trouble in the Congo.

All State Troopers Given "Ride" Alert

BALTIMORE (AP)—All 580 of Maryland's state troopers have been alerted to be available for duty Saturday, when a massive "Freedom Ride" is scheduled on U. S. 40, State Police Supt. Carey Jarman said Tuesday.

Top police and legal officials of Maryland, Baltimore City and four counties met for 1½ hours in suburban Towson to plan how they will cope with the demonstration planned by the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

The session was closed to newsmen. Afterward, in a statement he said was prepared at the meeting, Col. Jarman said:

"Should the employment of the police become necessary in any way, they intend to maintain an attitude of strict neutrality and at the same time to enforce the law, protect the rights of all, and to preserve order."

Asked about reports that State Police leaves on one barracks had been cancelled for Saturday and Sunday, Col. Jarman said:

"At the present time, all of our people are on alert to be available for duty. We want to be sure we have the men to do the job."

"We're approaching this thing by carrying on a continuing eval-

Most Of Letters To Tawes Urge Anti-Bias Laws

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—An "overwhelming majority" of people writing to Gov. Tawes on the Route 40 question favor legislation which would outlaw racial discrimination in restaurants and hotels, an aide said Tuesday.

But most of them also "applaud the governor in not surrendering to CORE in its threatened free-riders" from across the country will take part in the attempt to force integration of restaurants and motels on U. S. 40.

In other developments Tuesday:

1. The executive assistant for Gov. J. Millard Tawes said an "overwhelming majority" of persons writing Tawes on the Route 40 issue favor legislation which would outlaw racial discrimination in restaurants and hotels along the well-traveled highway. But, the aide said, most of them also "applaud the governor in not surrendering to CORE" in its threatened freedom ride.

2. The Carroll County, Md., Council of Churches urged Tawes to call a special session of the legislature "as soon as possible" to consider an equal accommodation bill.

3. The Maryland chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union urged Tawes to back equal accommodation legislation during the forthcoming regular session of the General Assembly.

4. A meeting of U. S. 40 restaurant owners scheduled for Tuesday night was cancelled after

Pedro Sanjuan, assistant chief protocol for the State Department, said he would not attend. Sanjuan said he cancelled his appearance because "there was no concrete evidence that anyone would be there."

California 'Elfin Forest' Is Sword Of Damocles

LOS ANGELES (AP)—They call it the elfin forest sometimes—the dense, almost impenetrable brush that blankets the purple slopes of the Santa Monica Mountains.

Five to 15 feet tall it grows, a native growth tough enough to live with little water; rugged enough to survive day after day and month after month of blistering sunshine; defying man's efforts to clear it without heavy machinery.

Known generally as chaparral, it injects beauty into otherwise dreary hills, cuts erosion and floods—and lures nature-lovers to build homes in its cool seclusion.

But it's a Sword of Damocles over their heads.

For when it burns, it bursts into a raging inferno.

The very thing that allows it to live through the scorching summers—the oil that fills it in place of the water it rarely gets—causes it to flame with a heat against which nothing living can stand.

Even in normal times it's a threat. The threat grew to unprecedented heights this year, the third straight year of the worst drought in Southern California history.

For the first time on record, much of the brush was dead from lack of water.

The new addition, expected to be completed in the fall of 1962, will add 85,000 square feet to present facilities.

The expansion of the building will include a multi-purpose auditorium, fine arts lounge, a cafeteria, meeting and conference rooms and recreational facilities. Officials at College Park said many of the present facilities also will be enlarged. The university said the new constructions will be financed by student fees, charged for use of the building.

The ridge of the range runs along the Pacific Coast west of Los Angeles. At Santa Monica a huge thumb juts northeast into the sprawling city's heart. It reaches to Glendale and the Griffith Park area, divides the fast-growing San Fernando Valley from the city proper and is crossed by the Hollywood Freeway and several other routes.

Along its crest winds Mulholland Drive, twisting like a creek.

Both sides are cut by steep canyons, forming funnels that in time of fire create terrific drafts.

There, then, was the threat: Steep, broken terrain; semi-desert type brush dried by three years of drought and some of it already dead; the canyons with their enticing shade and the ridges with their views of mountains and sea to lure thousands of residents—all this waiting for a match.

Didn't they know the danger? They knew. Fires have threatened some of them before, in Topanga Canyon, Malibu Canyon, Laurel Canyon and others.

Sanjuan discussed the problems of Negro diplomats in a taped radio interview.

The diplomats find no segregation in Washington restaurants, stores, public transportation and hotels, Sanjuan said, but do in housing.

In the choice residential areas of Washington, Washington falls behind other cities in the United States," he said. "These areas are largely segregated.

They're not segregated by law. They're not segregated by, I don't think, the wishes of the people living there. They're segregated by the real estate business of Washington, which feels . . . they will lose customers if they open them up. I think this is an un-

Official Charges Discrimination In D.C. Housing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department's assistant chief of protocol said Tuesday the law "is very sorely needed" to keep African diplomats from being barred from luxury apartments in Washington.

A walkout of 10,000 Teamsters deliverymen and plant handlers ended in an agreement for binding arbitration of the chief issue, clocking of overtime for employees.

Some regular milk deliveries were resumed with the dawn.

"Sheer nonsense," Wagner retorted, estimating a price rise of no more than ½ cent a quart.

However, Irving R. Wisch, chief negotiator for the dealers, said he expected prices to go up one or two cents a quart.

Milk currently sells for from 26 to 28 cents a quart in New York City, and at about 28 cents a quart in Nassau and Suffolk counties on Long Island.

Milk Pours Into Gotham As Teamster Strike Ends

NEW YORK (AP)—Milk in full supply poured into New York and Long Island Tuesday with the end of the 6 a.m. opening of the polls for Tuesday's mayoralty election. He seeks a third term and the strike was not expected to harm his already excellent chances.

The mayor's chief mayoralty opponent, Republican State Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, ridiculed Wagner as a "great hero" who had saddled New Yorkers with a stiff price increase for their milk.

Carroll Board Defers School Shift Decision

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — After hearing protests from about 30 persons, the Carroll County Board of Education announced Tuesday that a final decision on the proposed transfer of Taneytown High School students would be delayed until next month.

The board had announced last month that the 151 students at Taneytown would be transferred to the new Francis Scott Key School near Union Mills. The Taneytown school would become a junior high.

But after listening to various arguments Tuesday, DeVries R. Hering, school board president, said the matter would be taken up again at the December meeting of the board.

Counsel for the protesting delegation contended the proposed transfer was not on last month's agenda, but was approved after board member Merwyn Fuss of Taneytown had left the board meeting. Fuss is one of six board members.

Protestants presented the school board with petitions signed by about 2,000 residents of the Taneytown district, asking that the transfer order be withdrawn. They suggested that Francis Scott Key school be used as a junior high, or that it remain vacant for the present.

Mrs. James T. Marsh, a board member from Uniontown, told the delegation it was plugging for a school building system of "A-model" days. She contended a consolidated school would provide a better curriculum, a better physical plant, and a better teaching staff.

Supt. Samuel Jennes said when the Francis Scott Key school was on the drawing board in 1957, it was not contemplated that Taneytown pupils would be shifted.

But Jennes said the preponderance of all educational evidence indicates the consolidation of schools is desirable. He said he had not recommended a transfer of students at that time, but since the school board approved the move he supported its vote.

Library Asked To Ban "Tropic"

HAGERSTOWN (AP) — The chief of police in Hagerstown has requested the Washington County Library Board to remove the controversial novel "Tropic of Cancer" from bookshelves of the county library.

Chief Blair Overton said that he had also suggested to booksellers that they neither stock or distribute the book by Henry Miller. Several indictments are pending against merchants who sold the novel in Montgomery County where the book has been banned from the library.

The Washington County library Board met behind closed doors Monday night to consider the chief's request but has not announced any decision. The novel is still on the library's circulation list.

Overton said that he had submitted information on the book to state's attorney James F. Strine, but based on the information the prosecutor said, "I don't see any reason to get into it."

Groh's Resignation Accepted By Court

HAGERSTOWN (AP) — The Circuit Court of Washington County accepted the resignation Tuesday of attorney Garland E. Groh, whose disbarment was sought last March by the Washington County Bar Association.

The bar association charged Groh had fraudulently attempted to inflate the value of land owned by him which was in the path of new U.S. 40 near Hagerstown. The Circuit Court said his name would be permanently stricken from the rolls of attorneys in the state of Maryland.

The association of lawyers said that Groh should not be allowed to resign, but the court ruled that if he fulfilled certain conditions nullifying the inflated property values, his resignation would be accepted.

Groh had been charged by the bar association of "professional misconduct, malpractice, fraud, deceit, crime involving moral turpitude, and conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice."

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Diets May Subtract Old Weight, Add New Worry

A successful weight-slashing diet doesn't always solve every problem in a woman's efforts to improve her appearance. It may, in fact, be the indirect cause of some entirely new crotches.

Fortunately, most of them are just that—little imperfections revealed after weight loss. Annoying them are, but relatively unimportant. Most women are perfectly willing to settle for them in exchange for their excess pounds.

Cases in point are the post-diet dilemmas described to me in recent letters from three of my readers:

One lady has managed, at last, to melt away her double-chin—but, alas, now her throat-line sags with flabby skin.

Another woman's slenderizing has meant sacrifice to her full facial contours. Now, her face appears too thin; her cheeks unattractively hollow.

A third dieter is more self-conscious than ever about her bulging calf-muscles. Over-developed to rocklike firmness, they have always been protuberant. Now, the knots are more noticeable than before.

I'll treat each of these cases individually in coming columns but, first, let's probe why the way of all flesh is often so wayward.

A diet remodels. It cannot renovate. The human body is not a piece of furniture, which can be upholstered "like new" with new parts and materials. Both before and after a diet, the human body is essentially the same. The only thing taken away is the fatty layer that weighs so much and makes it so difficult for the body organs to operate efficiently. The only thing it gives is a sensible set of healthful eating habits, to guide the dieter in normal maintenance throughout a longer, livelier, happier life.

Beyond these lay the point of no return, no lamp man to exchange "new lamps for old" as we read in Aladdin. The dieter discovers she still has the same skin, the same bone structure, the same muscle development. At first, none of them appear to hang together as they once did. There's too much skin, all stretched out. Once-padded bones project to form hollows. Under-developed muscles sag, overdeveloped muscles refuse to budge.

A young dieter has a better chance to govern contour changes, thanks to youthful elasticity and muscle tone. By combining regular calisthenics with her calorie-counting, she can expect to snap back into shape without too much difficulty. That's why I've always recommended tackling excess weight as soon as it appears, from the earliest age. And why I've battled against quick crash-diets that don't allow time for contour adjustment or education in proper eating habits.

For older dieters, reshaping requires more work and patience. And less concern over perfection, a rare bird, indeed. What calisthenics and spot-reducing won't do, camouflage with clothes and cosmetics will. Any leftover disadvantages are too minor to mar their new appearance.

A plan to eat-less-and-exercise is told in my booklet, "Summerizing Your Beauty"—good advice

Need Today Of General Education Is Stressed

Stressing that schools should do everything in their power to encourage young people to continue their education, Richard Winer, addressing the Allegany County Elementary Principals Association, pointed out that today's world demands more and more preparation.

Assistant plant manager of Allegany Ballistics Laboratory, Mr. Winer used the theme, "Science Preparation in Elementary Schools," for his talk to the Allegany County Elementary Principals Association Monday evening at the Ali Ghan Country Club.

From his own observations and conversations with his colleagues, the speaker said, he is led to feel that today's college graduates are better prepared in factual and technical knowledge, but have less intellectual curiosity and are not as capable of expressing themselves verbally, as the graduate of 15 or 20 years ago.

Mr. Winer also stated that he felt general education is preferable to over-specialized technical education, and stressed the fact that today's world requires more people with more education.

A social will follow and refreshments will be served. Mrs. Harry Kauffman, Mrs. Arthur Friedland and Mrs. Sander Lewine are in charge of arrangements.

Clothes for various occasions and Christmas decorations were discussed by Miss Betty Jo Queen, Mrs. Harry Hartman presided. Mrs. Eleanor Tennant conducted.

Information concerning merit bars was given by Fred Shank, advisor. Also present at the meeting was Thomas J. Walker of Fort Cumberland Lodge 211.

Plans also were made for the DeMolay basketball team, which participates in the City Rec League. A regular meeting will be held tonight at 8, followed by a social hour, with the DeMolay Mothers serving refreshments.

Recipients of the annual $100 University of Maryland grant this year is Miss Ellen Ruth Councilman, Route 1, Baltimore. She is a freshman in the home economics college.

The guest speaker was Miss Cynthia Nelson, Liaison between the Australian embassy and the United States Department.

It was noted that the 1962 meeting of the Associated Country Women of the World, of which the Maryland State Council is an affiliate, will be held in Australia. Miss Nelson said there is little difference between the women of the two countries, with both interested in baby health centers and the promotion and protection of the interests of housewives.

The Union Grove Homemakers will meet at 7:45 tonight at the home of Mrs. Luther Brotzmark, Mrs. Pearl Dicken and Mrs. Clyde Leisure are co-hostesses.

Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Many a new mother is apt to worry about whether her baby gets enough sleep. Strangely enough, most babies get the amount of sleep they need. Reassuring to remember that sleep patterns vary. A high-voltage baby tends to sleep less than a take-things-as-they-come baby, but there is no evidence that a wide-awake baby does not thrive as well as a sleepyhead.

Baby will snooze more happily if he's comfortable. Night togs should be non-restricting. Check to make sure there's at least 2 fingers of space between baby and his diaper.

Fun and games, plus mild exercise to keep baby reasonably active during waking hours, usually help baby sleep longer and more soundly. Peace and quiet just before bedtime has a lulling effect.

After a nap or before a nap — baby will be oh-so-socially acceptable in Gerber Baby Pants. Made of soft, soft polyvinyl film they're waterproof, leak-proof, acid-proof. Won't stiffen . . . will stay soft for the life of the pants. For extra comfort, they're amply cut to provide plenty of wiggle-room and allow for growth. Yes—they're machine washable and come in both pull-on and snap-on styles. Medium, large, extra-large. Gerber Products Company, Fremont, Mich.

Night owls or sleepyheads have a tendency to eat with special relish when menu feature Gerber Strained Foods. And small wonder! They're "custom" cooked for babies. Flavors are delightfully natural, the texture ever so nice to the tongue. And they're mildly seasoned, the way they should be. All are prepared by specialists who are wise in the ways of infant nutrition.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Dorothy Manners

(Substituting for vacationing Louella Parsons)

HOLLYWOOD — Miss LOP reports from New York that bot, signed for "Who's Got the Peggy Lee's Basin Street East Action?" with Dean Martin, Lana Turner and Eddie Albert, just sending her stock booming. Tom call her "another Carole Lombard" or "another Kay Kendall." Tall (5'8"), blonde, blue-eyed and sophisticated. Nita is constantly tagged with these comparisons of two ladies "beyond compare," as she puts it, "and besides, I don't want to be another anybody."

This is news over and above Miss Lee's signing for the TV drama. It is the first tip-off that Four Star TV is going into movie production.

That he is already booked almost over his head didn't stop Henry Fonda from saying "yes" to Darryl Zanuck and today Hank is in France for "The Longest Day." He'll play General Roosevelt, son of the late President Theodore Roosevelt, one of the heroes of the landing at Utah Beach.

How Hank got this is I don't know. He's just finished two films, "How the West Was Won" and "Advise and Consent." His TV "spec" goes into rehearsals in two weeks in New York, then he stars on Broadway in Garson Kanin's new play "Gift of Time."

If Brigitte Bardot has been wondering why leading man Jean-Paul Christian didn't fall in love with her (they all do) while making her new movie in Paris, it's out now:

Jean-Paul was secretly married three weeks ago in Gretna Green to heiress Linda Zacha. Despite the fact that the bride is 17 years older than her bridegroom, her enormously wealthy father is furious about the marriage and would love to get it annulled.

Romantically roped and practically tied by singer Ann Margaret, "Bronco" TV star Ty Hardin says they're getting so serious its upsetting him. "I don't want to get married again—but she and I hit it off so well it sort of scares me. I'd like to look over the field and see that this is the real thing."

For his information, Ann-Margaret will be doing a little looking on her own.

From Louella in New York: "At the invitation of composer Jay Livingston, we saw 'Let It Ride,' the musical comedy for which he and Ray Evans wrote the music and lyrics. This is based on 'Three Men on a Horse,' and our old friend, lonesome George Gobel, that is, gets into so much trouble, you feel sorry for him, but it's all very amusing."

"It's the first time I've seen Barbara Nicholas when she didn't giggle or give out with raucous laughter. If she knew how becoming it is to her, to restrain herself, she'll remember this when she returns to Hollywood. But let me say, Barbara's very good and her home town will be very proud of her. Sam Levine, who works hard, and attractive Paula Stewart (Jack Carter's pretty wife) furnish an evening of gaiety."

Wood Industry
Valuable To
W.Va. Economy

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Development of West Virginia's wood industry to "even a reasonable potential" would create jobs for an additional 15,700 people and increase the value of forest products to $500 million annually, Gov. W. W. Barron said Tuesday.

About 9.9 million acres of West Virginia land — or more than half its 15.4 million acres in forest land, Barron said. "That provides us with a source of raw material that is virtually unlimited."

"And unlike many of the other states which today are finding that their yearly output of lumber is greater than annual tree growth," Barron said. "West Virginia's timber 'reservoir' is beginning to fill up again."

He said that in recent years the growth of usable trees, both hardwood and softwood, has been more than twice the annual cut and the net annual growth of all growing stock has been four times the cut.

Barron said this kind of potential, coupled with the development of wood processing and manufacturing plants in the state would make a major contribution to the uplifting of the state's economy.

He said the high export rate of lumber produced in West Virginia and shipped into neighboring states as raw material for their wood-manufacturing plants "is a bright on our resourcefulness and initiative."

Barron said a recent study showed that for every $1 a land-owner in the state receives for wood cut from his property, an additional $17.60 is spent to process it before it finally reaches the consumer.

"And the bulk of this $16.60 difference is being spent to process it out-of-state," he said. "There's no reason why we shouldn't get a good part of this spent in West Virginia."

He said his upcoming Wood Utilization Conference, to be held in Charleston's Civic Center Nov. 30-Dec. 2, is the first major step in an intensive industrial development program for timbering and wood processing and manufacturing in the state.

More than 2,000 invitations have been sent to sawmill operators, furniture manufacturers, timber growers and merchandisers throughout the country for the wood conference.

Council Proposes Stiff Penalties For Discrimination

ROCKVILLE, Md. (UPI)—The Montgomery County Council received a recommendation Tuesday that county businessmen who discriminate against customers on racial grounds be subject to stiff penalties.

The proposal submitted by Councilman David L. Cahoon would authorize fines of up to $1,000 and six months in jail.

Cahoon said his proposal stemmed from recommendations of the Montgomery County Human Relations Commission.

The council set Dec. 14 for a public hearing on the proposal. There were indications the suggestion would be met by considerable opposition.

The proposed regulation would prohibit racial discrimination in stores, restaurants, hotels, theaters, hospitals and all places of public assembly and entertainment.

The State Roads Commission is seeking bids to obtain sub-surface engineering information needed before undertaking future highway bridge and culvert projects in Wescott Maryland.

The work calls for sub-surface exploration of the terrain at two sites in Allegany County and one each in Garrett and Frederick counties.

Bids will be opened by the SRC at its Baltimore headquarters on Tuesday, November 21, and will be one contract covering all four sites.

The Garrett County location is at Bear Creek on Route 219 south of Accident near Northern High School. This is near the intersection of Route 42 that goes to Friendsville.

The one Allegany County bridge site is over Jennings Run on the section between Mt. Savage to Morantown where the relocated Route 36 will be built.

The other will be a bridge to carry Route 40 over Evitts Creek in the vicinity of Nave's Crossroad. This will be included in the Cumberland-to-Martins Mountain Route 40 renewal program.

Core drilling will be made at these sites to provide engineering data for the design of the structures.

The Frederick County site included in this contract is at Ballenger Creek on the New Market to Libertytown section on Route 5.

W. Va. Justice Of Peace
Fines Can't Be Earmarked

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—The state attorney general's office said Tuesday that fines collected by a mayor acting officially as a justice of the peace in cases involving offenses against the state cannot be earmarked for a municipal treasury.

Only when a mayor, as a justice of the peace, is involved in a case concerning municipal statutes can fines and forfeitures be turned over to the local government, the opinion said.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Simon M. Bailey wrote the opinion for Mercer County Prosecutor William O. Bivens Jr., who had been asked to clarify the matter by the mayor or of Brumwell, Mercer County.

The mayor, noting that his community has enacted no ordinance, by-laws or resolutions to prescribe reasonable fines, penalties or imprisonments, wanted to know if money collected in fines levied by him, while acting as ex officio justice of the peace, should be placed with the town or the state.

In such a community, Bailey said a mayor "has no power to impose penalties and fines which accrue to the treasury of the municipality: the mayor of such a municipality has only the power to impose penalties and fines which accrue to the state," he said.

The license is for use at the National Guard Armory on Brown Avenue the night of the association's annual ball on November 25.

Applicants are John S. Chaney, Robert H. Meister and James W. Sisk. Owners of the premises are listed as the Military Department of Maryland.

The mayor, noting that his community has enacted no

Area Council Is Briefed On Urban Renewal

Projects Endorsed By Executive Unit

WESTERNPORT—John H. Larson, Hagerstown, community development and planning consultant for the Potomac Edison Company, discussed community planning at a meeting of the Tri-Towns Community Council Monday evening at First Baptist Church. Mrs. Arthur Hartman, president, presided.

Before his talk, Mr. Larson showed slides of street scenes before Urban Renewal plans were adopted and after the transformation had taken place. He placed emphasis on Hollidaysburg, Pa.

The Federal government will make a grant of 75 per cent for this type of program, he said, including the cost of land, moving of buildings and relocation of utility lines.

It does not, he said, contribute toward the cost of construction or remodeling.

This amount is given to cities of 50,000 population or under. Above that size, the government contributes only two-thirds of the cost.

Larson said such a project would require legislation in the state legislature empowering town officials to begin the project.

It would take about two years before the work would start, he said, as there would be a great deal of preliminary work to be done before the rebuilding of shopping districts and residential sections could get underway.

During the business session, Homer Cassidy, District 6 assistant maintenance engineer, said he will report to the State Roads Commission on the condition of the wall on East Hampshire Street.

The wall is cracked in a number of places and is in a dangerous condition, the council was told.

After the regular meeting, the executive committee and chairmen of committees met and endorsed projects for the year. They will be taken before the general committee at the next meeting.

Sr. Scout Council To Plan Tours

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Please don't think I'm a nut. I need help and I don't know where to turn without risking trouble.

Two years ago my husband disappeared. He had left me before (other women) so I wasn't too disturbed. He always came back after a few weeks. About a month later the police came to my home with a wallet they found on a man whose mangled body was picked up near the railroad tracks. The wallet belonged to my husband.

I had a lovely funeral for him and I went through the horrible months of grieving and torturing myself for not having been a better wife. The insurance company sent their check and I turned it over to a nice place.

Last night I was watching a gaudy sports event on television. The one was not yours.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our daughter's wedding a few months ago was a very happy occasion. It was a beautiful church ceremony and she wore the traditional white gown.

Yesterday I received a letter written by an anonymous person. It said, "Your daughter had no right to wear white and I have proof of this. She was intimate, not only with the fellow she married, but with a few others."

What shall I do? I am in a state of shock as I write this letter. — NO NAME

DEAR NO NAME: It is more than likely that the man you saw on television was a striking double and not your husband at all.

You should notify the police at once, however. If it was NOT your husband who was buried, the police would be very much interested in finding out who he was. The insurance company should be notified also. They will be eager to help in the investigation.

I am heartsick over this and don't know whether to show the letter to my husband or talk to my daughter about it. Please advise me. I am

West won a close decision from declarer today when he came up with the better guess.

The bidding was routine and against three no trump West opened the four of clubs. East's jack went to declarer's king.

There were sufficient potential tricks available if South drove out the ace of spades, but he incurred the risk that the defense could cash four club tricks.

There was no way to diagnose the length of West's suit and if it happened to be four cards declarer had nothing to fear.

An alternate line of attack was for declarer to play East to have the king of diamonds either once or twice guarded so that a finesse could bring in four tricks in that suit.

After a great deal of deliberation he decided to go after the spades and led low toward the dummy. West ducked and the king held the trick.

At this point it appears that the declarer should have altered his line of attack. Now he need only find East with the king of diamonds, even though it is guarded three times, to bring in the hand. Since West, a passed hand, has apparently been marked with two aces, the chances strongly favor the king of diamonds being with East. But declarer continued with the ten of spades, driving out West's ace.

West's course of action was not clear-cut. If East had the ace of diamonds, West should try to put him in to lead a club. South might have a 17 point no trump without the ace of dialose.

If declarer's original club holding had been the K-Q alone the lead of the ace now would bring down the house. If, on the other hand, East held the queen of clubs he would be expected to drop it under the ace—which in the actual case he did.

Shell suggests 10 ways to cut repair bills

Your car is probably the second biggest single investment you'll ever make. Here are 10 pointers from Shell that can help you protect that investment. They're easy to follow. And they might well save you a lot of trouble, as well as needless expense.

1. Avoid 100-foot trips. It's a mean trick to start a cold car, drive it just a few feet, then turn it off. Yet people often park in front of their homes, then drive into the garage later on. This can increase engine wear, dilute your oil with unburned fuel and give sludge more chance to form. If at all possible, drive right into the garage when you arrive home.

2. Touch up scratches before rust sets in. You can discourage the spread of rust by using touch-up paint on body scratches. Rust also likes to plug drainage holes on the underside of car doors and body panels. Keep those holes open (a screwdriver or any pointed instrument works fine) and you may well prevent a rusted-through door or body section.

3. Check your cooling system hose for weak spots. Inspect all of the rubber hoses that interconnect your cooling system. If they are cracked, cut or swollen, they could give way at any time and cause engine temperature to soar. The result: a troublesome breakdown. Less serious, but a potential cause of overheating, is a debris-clogged radiator. Ask your Shell dealer to use his air hose to clear away clutter on the outside of your radiator.

4. Look for oil streaks on inner walls of tires. It may take a bit of back-bending, but it's well worth the effort to check the side of your tires you seldom see—the side facing in. If there's any sign of leaking fluid on tire walls, tell your Shell dealer. A leaking brake cylinder or rear axle oil seals could be at fault. Either can lead to extensive repairs if not corrected right away.

5. Obey the cardinal rule of car care. A professional lubrication job is still the best way to keep your car in good health. But it should be done on a regular basis—not "every so often." For safety's sake, Shell lubricate every 1000 miles. If your car has an automatic transmission, your transmission fluid level should be checked regularly. Your Shell serviceman can do this for you during Shell lubrication.

6. Never "gun" your car to warm up your engine. It doesn't help a bit. Matter of fact, it can do more harm than good, even increase engine wear. Many drivers also think it's worthwhile to idle their cars on a cold morning. But, with today's modern engines, it isn't necessary. It just wastes gasoline. Far better to start your engine, wait a few seconds until it's running smoothly—then be on your way, but at moderate speed.

7. Check a terribly neglected little accessory. People seldom give their windshield wipers a second thought—except when it rains. But wipers wear out too. Instead of wiping your windshield,

Bobcats End Season With 4-3-2 Record

Beard Scores Goal, Ups Total To Six For 1961 Campaign

Frostburg State Teachers College dropped its final game of the 1961 soccer season to the Lynchburg College Hornets yesterday at Lynchburg, Va., by the score of 2-1.

All of the scoring was done in the second period as the Bobcats suffered their third setback against four victories and two tie contests.

Frougi sent Lynchburg ahead with three minutes gone in the second quarter by kicking a field goal on an assist from Stoke. One minute later, Roy Beard, the Bobcats' center forward knotted the count with a goal on a pass from Hesterberg. What proved to be the winning goal was scored by Stoke 14 minutes after Beard had tied it up.

Goalies Make 32 Saves

Lynchburg took 17 shots at the goal while Frostburg had a total of 22. The Bobcats had four corner kicks to two for Coach Bill Shellenberger's eleven. Goalie Taylor of Lynchburg made 17 saves at the uprights while Goalies Whitmore and Robeson made seven and eight, respectively, for Coach Ken Babcock's team.

It was the second meeting of the schools in soccer, Frostburg having won the opening game of the series in 1958 at Frostburg by the score of 4-1.

Frostburg's wins this season were at the expense of Shellenberger (Md.) Teachers, 3-0, Mt. St. Mary's, 2-0, Grove City 3-2 and Lycoming, 1-0. The losses came at the hands of Loch Haven Teachers, 1-0, Howard University, 2-1, and Lynchburg. A pair of 1-1 games were played with Pitt and Slippery Rock.

The Bobcats scored 13 goals to nine for the opposition.

Texas Longhorns Rated Top Eleven In AP Poll

Solid Favorites Over Alabama And Ohio State Teams

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The "half-a-point-a-minute" Texas Longhorns were named No. 1 in the race for the national college football championship Tuesday, and it looks as if they'll be hard to dislodge.

A 1 a m a, most strongest rival for top honors, has an easy game this week with Richmond but then must wind up with Georgia Tech and Auburn, both formidable, Ohio State meets Indiana Saturday, plays Oregon next and finishes against tough Michigan.

LSU this week plays a North Carolina team fresh from victory over Tennessee, and Minnesota jumps from the frying pan into the fire against Iowa. Michigan State is at Purdue, risking a second straight setback, while Mississippi can take it easy against Chattanooga.

The top teams with first-place votes are:

1. Texas (35) .....	463
2. Alabama (6) .....	410
3. Ohio State (7) .....	365

Most of the other contenders for top honors have a more dangerous finishing stretch.

The Texans were a solid favorite for the No. 1 position this week in The Associated Press poll of a panel of experts.

They received 35 first-place votes compared with six for second-place Alabama and seven for third-place Ohio State. They tallied 463 points—on the basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second, etc.—compared with 410 for undefeated Alabama and 365 for once-tied Ohio State.

Two Jockeys Elected To Hall Of Fame

Notter, McAtee Awarded Honors

BALTIMORE (AP) — Joe Notter and Linus (Pony) McAtee, two old-time former jockeys who both rode Kentucky Derby winners, were named to the National Jockey Hall of Fame Tuesday.

Notter, 72, of Floral Park, Long Island, N.Y., rode Regret, who in 1915 became the only filly ever to win the Derby. A jockey from 1904 through 1918, Notter had 56 major stakes victories and his purse-winning record of $464,322 in 1908 stood until broken by Earl Sande in 1923.

McAtee, 64, is now a successful financial investor at Jamaica, Long Island, N.Y. His Derby victory came in 1929 aboard Clyde Van Dusen. He rode from 1914 through 1932.

Portraits of McAtee and Notter, 17th and 18th members of the Hall of Fame, will be unveiled in ceremonies Nov. 21 at Pimlico race track in Baltimore.

McAtee received more votes from sports writers but because the vote was close (297 to 291) the nominating committee took the suggestion of Hall of Fame Chairman Louis Pondfield and elected both men.

Runners-up to the winners were Charles (Flying Dutchman) Kurlander, 156 votes; Fred Taral, 95, and Albert Johnson, 60.

Hawks Win, 6-0

CHICAGO (UPI) — Al McDonald scored twice and Red Hay had four assists Tuesday night to power the Chicago Blackhawks to a 6-0 win over the Toronto Maple Leafs on Glenn Hall's first shutout of the season.

Bill Russell also missed practice Monday because of bruised thighs but he is expected to be ready for the Pistons' game.

Phillips has an injured left ankle which he suffered just after getting into Saturday's game with the Syracuse Nats at the Garden.

Shiner Gains In Race For Offense Lead

Challenges Gabriel For ACC Laurels

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Maryland sophomore quarterback Dick Shiner and North Carolina senior halfback Gub Carlson have moved into challenging positions in the Atlantic Coast Conference race for individual offensive football honors.

Shiner, who tied an ACC record with three touchdown passes against Penn State last week, totaled 195 yards in the game and advanced to second place in the total offense column with 728 yards gained. The leader, Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State, gained 100 yards against Mississippi Southern for a total of 760.

Clemson's Jim Parker, who missed the Tulane game because of a thumb injury, dropped from third to third place with 666 yards.

Carlson, who rushed for 121 yards and caught the game-winning extra point pass to beat Tennessee, moved up to second place with 321 yards in six games. The leader, Alan White of Wake Forest, has 382 yards in seven games.

Gabriel is the top passer, with 69 completions in 131 attempts for 649 yards and six touchdowns.

Shiner has 42 completions in 78 attempts for 685 yards and six scores, sharing second place with Ray Farris of North Carolina. Farris has completed 42 of 95 passes for 538 yards and two touchdowns.

In the team departments, Clemson leads total offense with 290.3 yards a game. Wake Forest tops rushing offense with 170 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Johns is No. 1 in pass offense with 154.9. Defensively, Duke leads both total and rushing defense with yields of 216.7 and 122 yards a game.

The game features unbeaten Fresno State of California vs. Bowling Green of Ohio. The battle is being fought in an attempt to raise $200,000 for survivors and dependents of a plane crash that killed 17 members of the Cal Poly football team a year ago.

The broadcast will be over a 25-station network, with the primary outlets KFI in Los Angeles and KSFO in San Francisco.

Paul Owens Shoots Second Hole-In-One Of Year At CCC

Gets Both On No. 6, 1961 Total Seven, Tying Club Record

Paul Owens, owner of the Super 40 Drive-In Theater, posted his second hole-in-one of the year yesterday at the Cumberland Country Club.

The ace was registered on par three, 175-yard No. 6, the same hole on which Owens canned his first shot about three months ago. He used a No. 4 wood and a First Flight golf ball.

Owens and George Garlitz defeated Judge Morgan C. Harris and Dr. Frank Cawley in yesterday's nine hole match. Owens carded a 43, Garlitz 37, Harris 41 and Cawley 40. Richard Buskey, assistant pro, was playing along with quartet.

First To Score "Double"

It marked the first time that any member had shot two holes-in-one within the same season in a 10-year history of the local club course.

All five members who were on hand when Owens scored his "double" yesterday are members of the Hole-In-One Club. In fact, the quintet has a total of ten acres to their credit. Buskey has connected thrice, Garlitz, Harris and Owens, twice each, and Cawley, once.

Seventh Ace Of Year

Owens' ace was the seventh of the year recorded at the CCC course, equaling record established about eight years ago. Four aces have been made on hole No. 6 this year. In addition to Owens' two, the others were registered by "Chuck" Giornesto and Mrs. Henry Johnson. Carroll Boggs, club pro, got his No. 10, Raymond Cannon on No. 15 and Bob Robinette on No. 18.

Since Owens carries hole-in-one insurance he will collect twice this year. Carroll Boggs stated that the by-laws of the CCC Men's Golf Association must be rewritten to cover players scoring more than one ace in the same season.

Aparicio Signs 1962 Contract

Receives Slight Boost In Salary

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Chicago White Sox broke precedent Tuesday, signing the usually reluctant shortstop, Luis Aparicio, for the 1962 season as the first player under contract.

Aparicio normally is one of the last players to settle with the club and, in previous seasons, has signed only after numerous long distance negotiations sessions from his home in Venezuela.

Sox general manager Eddie Short said he received a "slight increase" over his 1961 salary, which was believed to be about $35,000.

Aparicio this year led the American League in stolen bases for the sixth straight season, setting a new major league mark, and his 53 base thefts put him in front of all active players with 238 in six major league seasons.

He also led the league in chances accepted by a shortstop, 781, in fielding percentage for a shortstop, .962, and in assists with 487.

Aparicio, 27, hit .272 in the 1961 season and led the club in hits two 170.

Danny Young Paces Soccer Loop Scorers

Valley High Booter Rings Up 11 Goals

Danny Young, senior center forward of Valley High School's championship team, is the individual scoring champion of the W.M.I. Soccer League for the 1961 season with a total of 11 points to his credit.

Danny, a brother of Ronald "Butch" Young, former Valley and Frostburg State soccer star, kicked four field goals and scored seven points from the penalty line.

Tommy James, of Valley, was the runner-up with seven goals and Marvin Miller, Valley, and Lowell Taylor, Bruce, tied for third place with five points each.

Valley (6-0-2) scored a total of 26 goals during the campaign while holding the opposition to eight. The champions and Bruce engaged in a pair of 1-1 tie contests.

Bruce High had the best defensive record, yielding only four points but the Bulldogs were limited to one goal each in seven of their eight contests. Like Valley, Bruce (4-0-4) was undefeated but figured in four of the five tie games played in the league this season.

Mt. Savage yielded the most points, a total of 25 while Flintstone was shut out six times in eight games. Mt. Savage was blanked five times. Only one of the eight goals score against Valley came from scrimmage. The others were the result of free kicks and penalties. Flintstone scored only two goals.

Gophers' Hall Named Week's Top Lineman

LSU's Sykes 2nd, Terps' Collins 3d

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer Tom Hall, Minnesota end, was named lineman of the week Tuesday by the Associated Press for his role in the Golden Gophers' 13-0 upset of Michigan State's top-ranked college football team last Saturday.

Close behind in the weekly AP poll of sportswriters and broadcasters were two other ends, Gene Sykes of Louisiana State, who helped the Tigers upset the No. 2 team, Mississippi, 10-7, and Maryland's Gary Collins.

Hall operated as the swing man when Minnesota surprised the Spartans with an unbalanced line, the first such attack the Gophers had used in three years.

He was a key figure in Minnesota's first period drive for a touchdown and set up the other with a fumble recovery. He took passes of 15 and 10 yards from quarterback Sandy Stephens in the 71-yard drive, and keyed the second by pouncing on a Michigan State fumble on the Spartan</p

In Memoriam

In memory of Robert C. Sweitzer, who passed away November 8, 1957.

The road unto the sunset
Is the one we all must tread,
Although it brings us sorrow,
When losing one goes ahead.

There's always comfort knowing
We will meet again someday,

When all grief and pain are over,
And the clouds have rolled away.

City Pledges Help On Area Water Plan

Fact-Finding Unit Meets With Light

City officials last night assured full cooperation to representatives of fact-finding committees which are exploring the possibilities of establishing water distribution systems in the Potomac Park and Bowling Green sections.

The offer was made by Water Commissioner G. Ray Light at a conference with William H. O'Neal and Elmer Rexrode, representing a Potomac Park committee, and E. S. Thompson, for the Bowling Green unit.

Sitting in on the meeting were City Attorney William R. Carsaden and James F. Twigg, chief clerk of the Water Department.

People in the area have until December 31, 1965, to establish a sanitary district for the sale of water.

Mr. Light explained in the same manner as LaVal and Cresaptown. Will Sell Water

He said the city would sell water to the unit or units at standard water company rates, and that the water would be supplied through a master meter installed as near the city line as possible.

Financing can be arranged through the county, he said, and a consulting engineer should be hired to design the water system.

In response to a query, Mr. Light said the city will be happy to supply all available maps and other information to the engineering firm selected.

It was suggested that serious consideration be given to including in the sanitary district all the Potomac Park, Bowling Green and Fairgo areas.

At present, the city has 568 individual customers in this section. Much To Offer

Mr. Light said a sanitary district has much to offer the area but that the greatest advantages would be adequate water for fire protection and adequate water pressure to all homes.

It was pointed out that the area is in a preferred position, as it is believed water will be available in all parts of this section by gravity, eliminating the expense of pumping and water tanks.

The sanitary district which is under study would be supplied through a 20-inch line which serves the Amecle plant and the Cresaptown Civic Improvement Association.

City officials warned that the task of setting up a water system will not be cheap or easy but that "when you finish you will have a good water system."

Back Hoe Sent To Canal After Loader Mires

A back hoe was moved to the C & O Canal here yesterday afternoon after a front-end loader mired down as it was being used to remove muck and debris from the area proposed as a recreation area.

C. R. Nuzum, city engineer, said the equipment will be put to work this morning, and he estimated it will take about three days to clear the silt from the 2,000-foot section of canal between Offutt Street and the foot of Roberts Street.

Breaks Through Crust

The 20-ton front-end loader broke through the dry crust shortly after it was put into use yesterday morning by the Hout Construction Company.

The equipment was pulled out later in the day and replaced with a back hoe, which will be used to pick up the 30-ton accumulation of silt and deposit it in low places along the bank.

The city is renting the equipment from the Hout Construction Company.

Recreation Department funds are being used to rent the equipment.

Earlier, it had been thought Street Department equipment and men would be used on the project. However, Street Superintendent Ray Valentine reported that the department was unable to spare either men or equipment because it would interfere with previous program commitments.

IS Joint Project

The project is a cooperative one between the city and National Park Service. Edwin M. Dale, Park Service superintendent, told the city last week that if the city furnishes equipment to clean the canal bed of debris washed in from nearby streets the past two decades, the Park Service would provide laborers.

After the canal has been cleared, the second phase calls for construction of small dams to allow rewatering for an ice skating area this winter.
